Acknowledgments

I wish to acknowledge the support of the various Arizona State University research programs that have, for thirty years now, generously supported my work on Latin American culture. My research assistants for this project have included Gastón Alzate, Oscar Díaz, María Cristina Guzzo, Arthur Hughes, Darrell Lockhart, Francisco Manzo-Robledo, Kanishka Sen, and Camille Villafañe. Daniel Altamiranda provided me with a valuable critical reading of the manuscript.

All translations of quotations in Spanish are my own unless otherwise indicated.

A slightly different version of chapter 7 appeared in Arizona Journal of Hispanic Cultural Studies. Parts of the discussion on Talesnik's La fiaca in chapter 2 will appear in a volume edited by George Woodyard on Argentine theater in the 1960s. Chapter 3 will appear in a volume on Latin American culture studies, edited by Eva Bueno, to be published by the University of Pittsburgh Press. Some of chapter 4 appeared in Spanish as part of a longer study in Tramas (Córdoba, Argentina). The excerpt on Alicia Steimberg in chapter 6 is also included in a chapter on Jewish women writers in a book edited by Marjorie Agosin, to be published by the University of New Mexico Press.
