

Contents

List of Figures and Maps	vii
List of Tables	xi
Series Editor's Foreword	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii
1. State Expansion	1
The Globalist View of Ancient State Expansion	7
Agency-Oriented Perspectives on State Expansion	18
Summary	26
2. Ayllus , Diasporas, and Archipelagos	29
Ayllus	29
Diasporas	32
Archipelagos	39
Summary: Ayllus as Diasporic Communities	48
3. The Tiwanaku Core Region	50
The Homeland	50
Material Culture and Culture History	68
The Altiplano Subsistence Base	77
Tiwanaku Core Region Settlement Patterns	80
4. The Tiwanaku Periphery	84
The Formative: Pre-Tiwanaku Colonies?	85
"Coastal Tiahuanaco": A False Start	88
Hegemony or Prestige Networks?—The Altiplano Model	90
Direct Complementarity and Colonies	98
Summary: In Search of the Tiwanaku Diaspora	111
5. Agrarian Settlement in the Middle Moquegua Valley	113
The Middle Moquegua Valley	115
Settlement Pattern Research in Moquegua	118
Tiwanaku's Antecedents in Moquegua	122
Tiwanaku Settlement Patterns	134

Wari Settlement Patterns	165
The Tumulaca Phase	171
The Late Intermediate and Inca Periods	176
Summary	179
6. Homes Away from the Homeland: Communities and Households of the Tiwanaku Diaspora	181
Households and Archaeology in the South-Central Andes	182
Household Archaeology in Moquegua Tiwanaku	188
House and Community in the Omo-Style Sites	195
House, Community, and State in the Chen Chen-Style Sites	210
State Collapse and Household Continuity in the Tumulaca Phase	227
Summary: Keeping House in the Tiwanaku Diaspora	236
7. Death in a Faraway Land	238
The Mortuary Record	239
Provincial Tiwanaku Social Structure and Burial Practice	240
Ayllu and Ethnicity: The Horizontal Dimension	254
Status and Wealth: The Vertical Dimension	257
Summary: Death and Social Persona in Provincial Tiwanaku	266
8. Provincial Tiwanaku Temples and Sacred Landscapes: Touchstones to Power	269
Provincial Public Architecture	270
Public Architecture and the Tiwanaku State	272
Omo's Tiwanaku Temple	282
Summary: State and Community Ritual in Moquegua Tiwanaku	302
9. Confederation and Pluralism in an Ancient State	306
What Was Tiwanaku?	306
Formative Antecedents	310
Pioneers and Pastoralists: The Diaspora Begins	311
Ayllus in Diaspora: The Tiwanaku Colonies' Segmentary Organization	314
Tiwanaku Colonists and Others	316
The Chicha Economy: From Diaspora to Provincialization	318
Imperial Fragmentation: Tiwanaku's Crisis of Faith	321
Tiwanaku Expansion and the Dialectic of Diaspora	325
Epilogue: Andean Diasporas Past and Present	328
Notes	331
Bibliography	343
Index	383